Dear Pocahontas Historical Society,

I wanted to write a separate letter concerning the McGuire and Waugh families. This information may be of some interest to Anna B. Denison Fisher or George Beard Vaughn who wrote the sketch on Levi Waugh's first and second family in your book.

Levi Waugh's grandfather Samuel Waugh was married to Ann McGuire. Samuel's brother James Waugh Jr. was married to Rebecca McGuire both Samuel and James Jr. were sons of James Waugh the Scotch Irish immigrant and wife Mary who were into Pocahontas early. Samuel and James Jr. married McGuire sisters.

A Mason county WVA deed dated January 2, 1830 in Deed book G page 35 show Samuel Waugh and wife Ann Waugh (formerly McGuire) and James Waugh and wife Rebecca Waugh (formerly McGuire) as heirs of John McGuire Sr. deceased of Mason county WVA. Both Waugh families are listed as being of Pocahontas county.

A Mason county WVA deed dated April, 1825 in Deed book F page 245 show heirs of John McGuire Sr. deceased are selling property to Robert Barnett son of Mary McGuire (daughter of John McGuire Sr.) and William Barnett. Named in the 1825 deed as heirs of John McGuire Sr. are: Hugh McGuire and wife Elizabeth, Samuel McGuire and wife Eleanor, John Thornton and wife Rachel (formerly McGuire) and John McGuire Jr. and wife Nelly.

Therefore children of John McGuire Sr. are Mary, Hugh, Samuel, John Jr., Rachel, Ann and Rebecca. See Family Group record MRIN 711.

I do not have first hand knowledge of the Waugh family except for Ann and Rebecca's tie to John McGuire Sr. in Mason County. I have read Price's sketches on the Waugh family as well as what you have in your new book. The MRIN sheets that I have enclosed for Waugh are all from secondary sources such as Price.

However, John McGuire Senior who died about 1825 in Mason County West Virginia was married to Elizabeth Cotel 14 July 1779 in Greenbrier/ Rockingham. This is given in the ministers return of Rev. John Alderson. Rev. John Alderson was the first Baptist preacher west of the Alleghenies according to Hardesty's Greenbrier sketch on page 175. It says Alderson was the pastor of the Lynnvillle Baptist Church in Rockingham but visited Greenbrier as well. Also given in the ministers returns is a William McGuire who married Mary Shirley in 1778. No proof but perhaps a brother of John McGuire Sr. Since both of John McGuire Sr.'s daughters Ann and Rebecca married the Waugh brothers and were of Pocahontas county I feel that John McGuire Sr. must have spent some time in Pocahontas co. before immigrating to Mason co. He sold property in Mason county in 1806. I do not know when nor how he obtained the property. I feel that he must have been in Pocahontas some time between 1779 when he married Elizabeth Cotel in Greenbrier/Rockingham and when he sold property in 1806 where it said he was of Mason county.

If you have any records that span these years I would appreciate knowledge of them so that I might check to see if John McGuire Sr. is listed there in.

I hope that you will file this in your families file under McGuire and Waugh. It may be of interest to someone.

I am presently researching additional information on John McGuire Sr. and will be happy to correspond with anyone who has knowledge of the family or who wants to share McGuire information.

Sincerely,

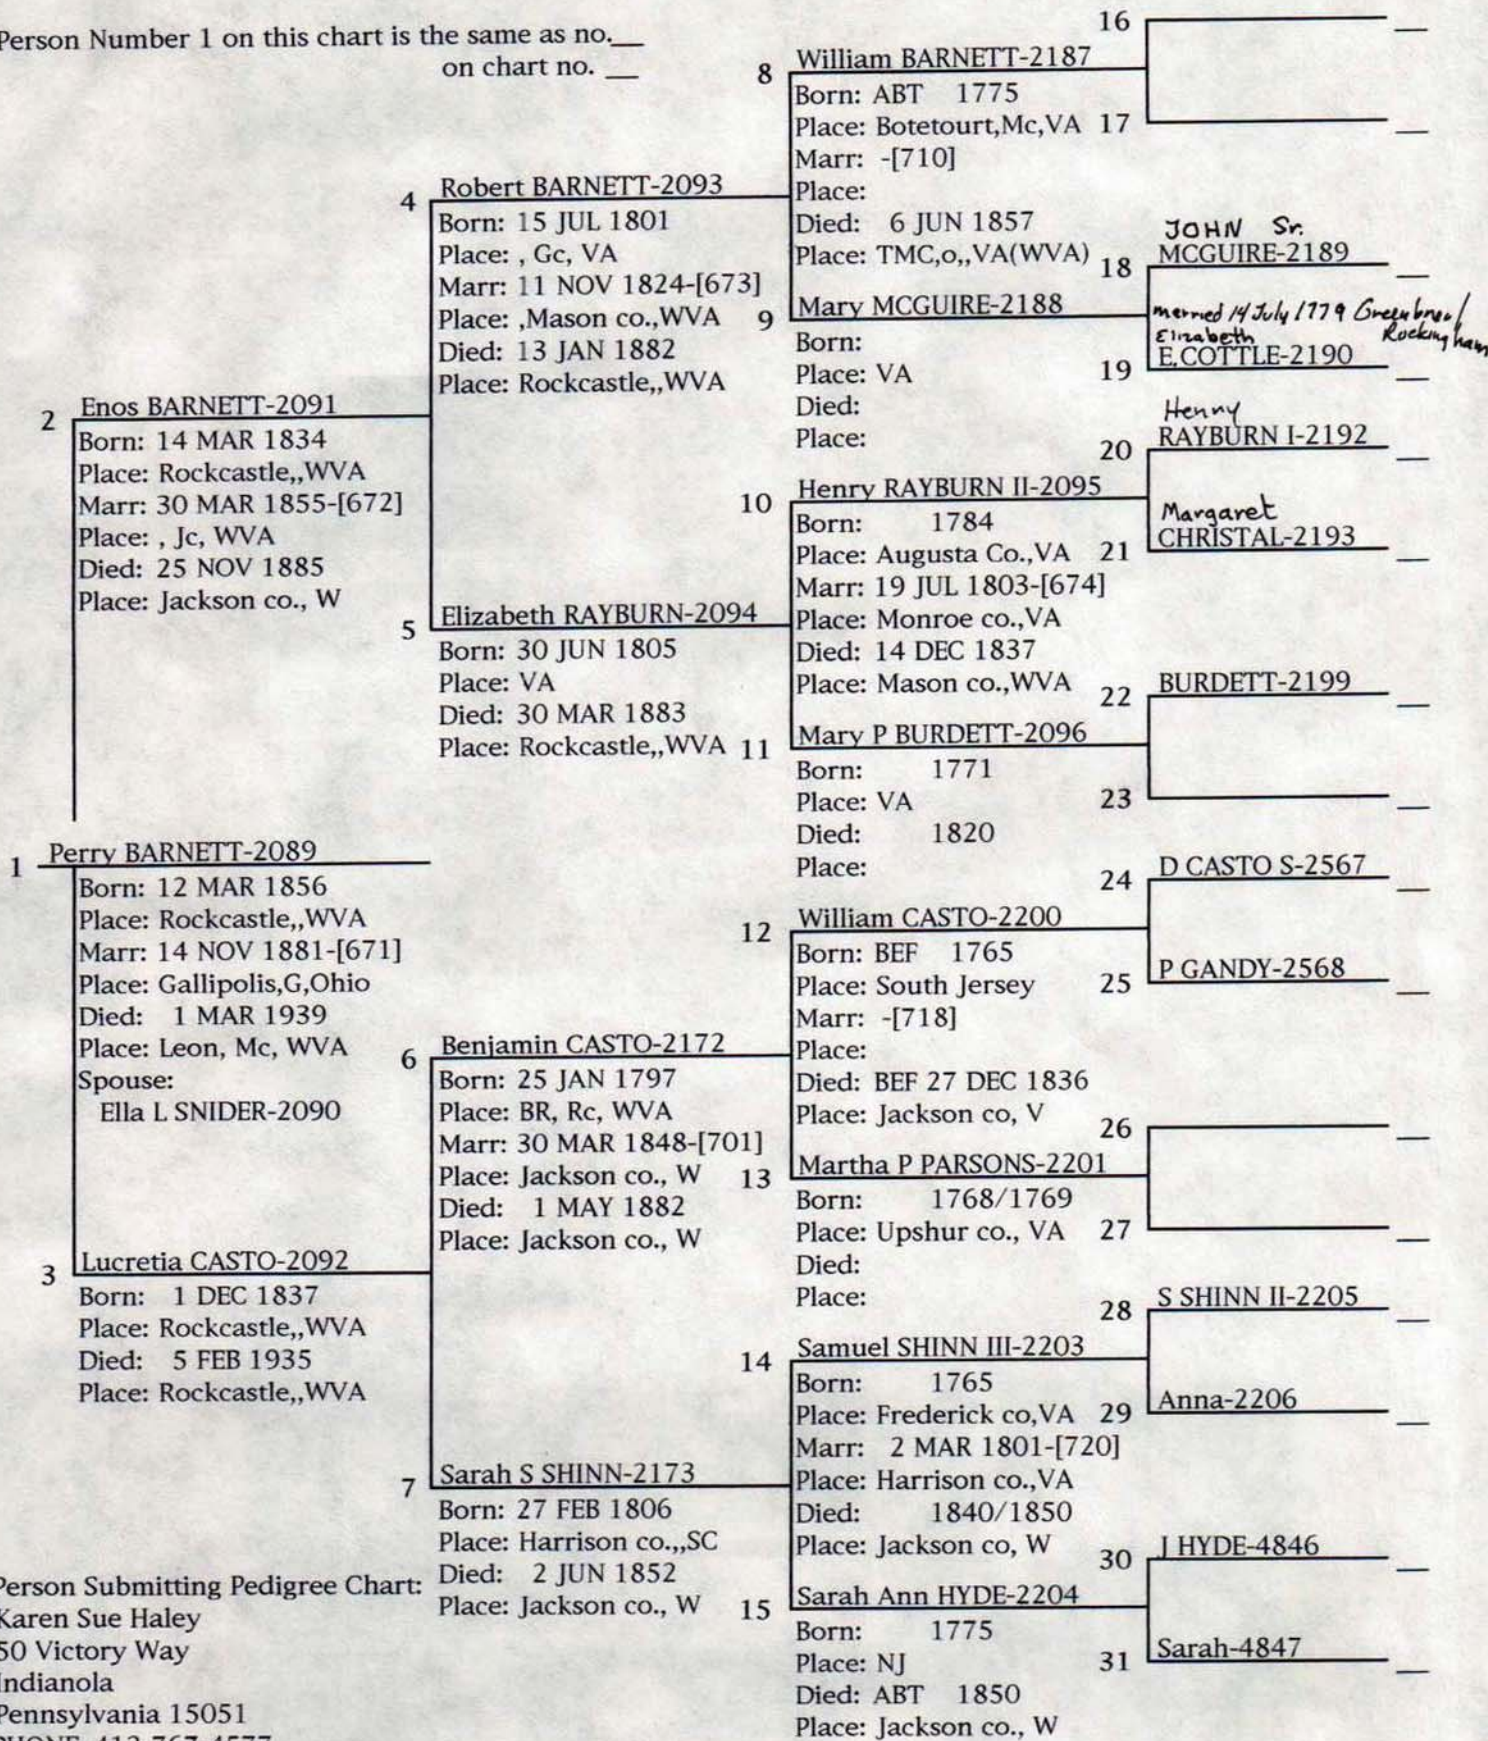

Karen Sue Haley

POAGES

This is part of an article on the Poage family in Virginia. Two brothers, Robert and John "proved their importation at their own charges" at Orange Courthouse in 1740. The Pocahontas Poages are the descendants of Robert Poage, who settled between Staunton and Fort Defiance. His wife was Elizabeth Preston. An account of the Poages is given in Price's Historical Sketches of Pocahontas County," but this article gives some interesting information—From a Staunton Newspaper.

The Poage family was a prominent one in and near Staunton, Virginia, in the years following the arrival of the first members as pioneer settlers, two hundred and more years ago.

One of them, Colonel James Poage, left Staunton, went to Kentucky, and then to Ohio, where he founded a new town he called Staunton. Later the name was changed to Ripley. This caused us to do some personal research at this end of the line.

We visited the old and new cemeteries at Fort Defiance, both associated with Old Stone Presbyterian Church, to see how many readable stones marked the graves of members of the Poage family. We found, too, that occasionally the name was spelled Poague.

As pointed out there are two cemeteries at Fort Defiance: The one near the church and a much older burial ground east of the present manse. Whether an early, frame church once stood near the older cemetery is not known, but normally a cemetery usually was closely located in relation to the church.

In this older cemetery, which is enclosed with a sturdy stone wall and the grass within the enclosure well kept are several stones bearing the name Poage or Poague. Some of these inscriptions include:

Our father, Major William Poage, born March 18, 1781, died September 23, 1855.

Thomas Poage, Captain, Anderson's Company, Virginia, 1740-1803.

John Poage, member of Captain Doyle's Company, Fifth Virginia Regiment Wounded March 23, 1862, in the Battle of Kerns Town, died March 26, 1862.

The most imposing stone, also erected in recent years, says:

Sacred to the memory of Robert Poage, immigrant from Ireland 1739, elder in Augusta Stone Church 1740; justice first commission of the peace Augusta County 1745; died in 1774; his wife, Elizabeth Preston.

In this old cemetery also is the grave of the Rev. John Craig, D. D. The inscription says: "Commencer of the Presbyterian ministerial in this place; 1740 to April 21, 1774; faithfully discharged his duties to the same".

Judge H. Roy Waugh

Copied from History of West Virginia, Old and New, and West Virginia Biography, by special staff of writers, The American Historical Society, Inc. Vol. iii, 1923.

"H. Roy Waugh, born in Upshur County, West Virginia, 4 January 1897, the son of Homer M. and Melissa J. (Morrison) Waugh, the former of whom was born 19 May 1854, the latter 14 August 1859.

Homer M. Waugh was born in Pocahontas County, this state, a son of James Waugh, whose father, James Waugh, Sr., immigrated from Scotland to America in 1739 and established his residence in Virginia. His son James married Sarah Rebecca McGuire, and the son Samuel married her sister, Ann McGuire. James was a patriot soldier in the War of the Revolution. Jacob Waugh, another of the sons was born in 1809 married Mary Brown, and they became the parents of thirteen children. Homer M. and Melissa J. Waugh became the parents of three children who attained to years of maturity and of the number Judge Waugh of this sketch is the eldest. Ica remains at the parental home. Joy is engaged in business activities at Clearfield, Pennsylvania. Judge Waugh was elected to the bench of the Circuit Court in November 1920, he was a member of the Republican Party. He and his wife belong to the Methodist Church, the Masons and the K of P lodge.

Judge H. Roy Waugh was married 17 October 1905 to Miss Louise P. Newlon, three children Mary, John and Helen.

NOTE: The above was furnished by Mr. Joseph W. Summers of 1130 Windson Ave., Morgantown, W. Va. under date of 21 January 1953. As it does not agree with the records now in my possession and all the writings and W. Va. Blue Book articles will have to gather more information and proof before accepting the above as being true. i. e. James Waugh the second, was but six or eight years old in 1776 and could not have been a soldier. However, his father, James Waugh, the 1st, was a soldier for three years, 1777-78-79, court records have proven this to be a fact. The father of James Waugh, the 1st, was either named John or James and came from Orange County, Virginia, to what is now Pocahontas County about 1765.

NOTE: I believe a line or two was omitted when the para. of H. Roy Waugh was copied. He ran for Governor of West Virginia, lost by a few hundred in the primary in the 1920's./glv
